

2-Day Quebec City Tour (A)

Old Quebec City – Montmorency Falls –
Observatoire de la Capitale – Château
Frontenac – Art Exhibition – Basilica of Sainte-
Anne-de-Beaupré – Canyon Sainte-Anne

Itinerary

Day 1 (June 17) Montreal – Quebec

Depart from Montreal at 8:00am, proceed to Old Quebec City, the heart of French Canada and a World Heritage Site. Old Quebec is known for its architecture and its value as a testament to the impact of colonization and the establishment of the Saint-Louis Fort. After approximately three-hour drive, arrive at Montmorency Falls and take a cable car ride to the observation point at the top of the waterfalls for a spectacular view of the city and Saint Lawrence River.

Old Quebec City tour – Ride to the top of Quebec, Observatoire de la Capitale, for the best panoramic view of the city; Château Frontenac, Notre-Dame de Quebec Basilica-Cathedral, National Battlefields Park, Parliament Building and cultural art exhibitions, etc.

Lodging at three-star hotel in Quebec.

Day 2 (June 18) Quebec – Montreal

After breakfast at hotel, proceed to visit Basilica of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré, and the famous Canyon Sainte-Anne for a phenomenal scenic experience offered by nature. After lunch, head back to Montreal. Arrive in Montreal around 6:00pm.

Price: CAD198.00/person (Double occupancy room)
CAD258.00/person (Single room)

Tour Fare Includes: Transportation (coach bus) and accommodation (include hotel breakfast) as per itinerary, admission/ticket fees (Montmorency Falls, cable car, Observatoire de la Capitale and Canyon Sainte-Anne), Chinese tour guide and driver gratuities and taxes.

Tour Fare Excludes: Lunch, dinner

